1.  In the village of Hanover Center, find a school where boys dream.
 Four maples witness fathers and sons muster on the green.
 A church steeple tolls as they come back home.
 A graveyard nearby, they no longer roam.
 Find the name of the green where Soldiers trained for their military duty.

2.  Travel to Strafford; find a cottage that's pink.
 Where Justin Morrill liked to think.
 He dreamt a plan of higher education for all
 That Abraham Lincoln signed into law.
 Walk up the hill. Collect the name of the place plants could survive.
Additional Adventure: The Town House Quest

3.  In Newbury, NH, the Fells is a place you must see,
Summer home to John Hay, Lincoln's personal secretary.
In homage to the President, a log cabin was made,
A rock foundation is all that remains today.
Find the "Old Garden" and white gate there.
Behind the sign, look down to what remains.
Name the flowering tree nearby.
4.  On Route 11 in Newport east of town,
Sarah Josepha Hale's marker can be found.
To Abraham Lincoln, a letter she did write.
She had a mission for which she did fight.
What holiday did she convince President Lincoln to sign into law?
Additional Adventure: Visit the Richards Free Library & the Civil War Memorial on the Green.
5.  The Soldiers Memorial Building stands on the Lebanon Green as a way
To honor veterans of the Civil War and today.
