

Pettee Memorial Library Quest

Wilmington, Vermont

Moderate
 Historical, Vista
 Pavement
 1:00

To get there: From Brattleboro (or Exit 2 off I-91) take Route 9 West to Wilmington (about 20 miles). At the traffic light go left, pass Young and Constantine, and park in front of the library or in the lot across the street.

Clues:

1. Start in front of the place where books are kept
 There are memorials for our country's defenders.

_____ () _____ memories are honored at the watering hole,
 What a great place to start our search for treasures.

Comment [A1]: Expanded each letter space by two more line, making three total for each letter, consistent change throughout clue set.

2. Walk down to the light,
 Pass galleries, restaurants and _____ () _____'s office
 of law.
 Cross Route 9 with the lighted man,
 There's a bench to rest and see what you saw.

3. History says the _____ () _____ level in 1935
 Was over a child's head.
 Deerfield River water has since been controlled,
 And stays below in the riverbed.

4. Continue north past the Police door and
 Walk by the red phone.
 You'll come to a gallery
 By the name of Sticks and _____ () _____.

5. The arduous part of our journey starts here,

Turn right and begin the _____ (____) _____.
Two driveways up on the right is the Historical Society
And I can't find a rhyme.

Comment [A2]: This word could be anything, especially if there is no rhyme to match. Emailed Emily on 5/18 to check . . .

6. Stop, rest, turn around and listen for bells
Down below.

_____ (____) _____ Mountain rises behind as you head
East really slow...ly.

7. The drive on your left has signs for Children at Play.

The name _____ (____) _____ Haven
Suggests why some visit and stay.

8. Continue your ascent and now the paved turns to dirt—
(____) _____ Road is your next sign.
I hope your feet don't hurt.

9. Pass an old orchard and hear
Route 9 traffic down below.

Imagine the _____ (____) _____ that were grazing here
Two hundred years ago.

10. Unscramble the letters to discover
Where you are.

If you find the plaque you'll know that
The box isn't very far.

Wilmington _____ M _____