Find the Farmers!

“Hiya!!”

How many farmers are at the market today? (Be sure and look for all kinds of farms!)

Ask one farmer what TIME they woke up this morning and write it here:*

*Psssst!! Try the questions for an extra challenge!

What is one thing you love about this farmers’ market?

What is one reason to shop at the farmers market instead of the grocery store?

You are done!

Bring your booklet back to the Hunt table to get your prize and register for the grand prize drawing!
Out of all the farms you found at the market, which one is your favorite? Why?

If a farmer doesn’t look too busy, ask them “What is one thing you love about being a farmer?” and write the answer here.

Pick one farm stand and count how many different things they have for sale. Write the number here:

Out of all the things you see farmers selling at their booths, which one do you love the most?

Fresh Flavors!

Taste something at a farm booth. Write or draw what it was here:

What could you cook or make with it?

Plants You Can EAT!

Find a leaf you can eat and write its name here:

Of all the plants you can eat that are for sale at the market today, which is your favorite? Is it a leaf, a fruit, a root, a stem, or something else? Write what it is and what part of the plant it is from.
